SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior second baseman April Jowers has been named the Peach Belt Conference's Softball Player of the Week for the second time this season, announced Monday by league officials.

Jowers continued her hot hitting for the No. 8-ranked Pirates, hitting .636 for the week and extending her season-long hitting streak to 30 games, snapping the PBC single-season hitting streak of 26 previously held by Sherquita Bostick of Georgia College in 2008. Her overall hitting streak reached 36 games, breaking her own school and PBC record and also charting as the fifth-longest hitting streak in DII history.

The Columbus, Ga., native also stole five bases on the week, scored six runs, drove in another and made no errors in 36 chances at second. Her current .627 average leads the PBC and ranks second in NCAA Division II.

Jowers was also the league's Player of the Week on the first week of the season, February 14th, and this is the fourth career Player of the Week honor for the reigning PBC Player of the Year.

Jowers and the Pirates are currently in action on Monday at Queens (NC) and will be next in action at home, hosting No. 2-ranked North Georgia on Thursday, March 15, at 1:00 p.m.
